

THE PROPHECIES of DOZING DOGS

Are you struggling with uncertainty? Seeking clues about the path forward? Don't waste your time with tea leaves or tarot cards. Look to the experts! Humankind's best friends have the answers. If you think they're just dozing, look again. What can dogs tell you about your future? Everything.

THE DOUBLE SPIRAL

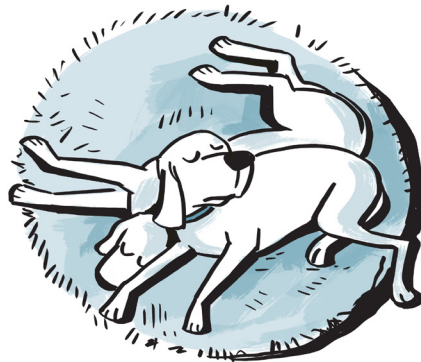

YIN AND YANG

THE MIRROR

THE REVERSE DOUBLE SPIRAL

THE SPIDER

THE DOUBLE CRESCENT

THE WAY

OPEN AND CLOSED

OVER AND UNDER

THE DOUBLE SPIRAL

The spiral is a powerful form in nature, representing the journey of life as it unfolds. The clockwise spiral speaks to growth and progress.

YIN AND YANG

A sign of balance in your life—comfortable co-existence with what the world offers you, as well as harmony in your relationships.

THE MIRROR

At first glance, the mirror may appear to represent disharmony, but don't be fooled. This is a reminder to view situations from both sides before taking action.

THE REVERSE DOUBLE SPIRAL

The counterclockwise double spiral represents a return to something previously known, a homecoming.

THE SPIDER

The weaver, the creator: the spider signals a period of creativity, resourcefulness, and newfound energy for building—metaphorically or physically—what you need in your life.

THE DOUBLE CRESCENT

The crescent is associated with the moon, changing phases, and fertility. Prepare for fruitful transitions in the days ahead.

THE WAY

If you're struggling to find your path, this configuration represents consensus on a direction, showing you a clear path ahead. Follow the (wet) noses.

OPEN AND CLOSED

This configuration signifies ambivalence and indecision—you may be struggling with a difficult choice. In this case, it's best to wait for a clearer configuration before deciding.

OVER AND UNDER

This configuration reminds you to cover all of your bases, to be thorough and complete in your approach to work, life, and love.